

Why do you think this was the best strategy for causing the ball to hit the target? Use what you have learned about motion, force, and direction.

---

---

---

A student from another class wants to know what you found out today about a moving object colliding with another object. Explain what you did today and what you learned.

---

---

---